

Rubric for Evaluation of Draft Statement

	#	Needs Improvement	Developing	Meets Expectations
Deficiency, Weakness & Concern Findings Statements	1	Finding statements do not cite the criterion or policy that applies to each finding.	Finding statements do not consistently cite the criterion or policy that applies or quote excerpts as needed.	Finding statements cite the criterion or policy that applies or quote excerpts as needed.
	2	Finding statements do not describe what was observed for each finding.	Finding statements do not consistently describe what was observed for each finding.	Finding statements describe what was observed for each finding.
	3	Most finding statements incorrectly interpret the criteria or policy.	Some finding statements incorrectly interpret the criteria or policy.	All finding statements correctly interpret the criteria or policy.
Deficiency or Weakness Statement	4	Statements do not describe the effect each finding has on the program.	Statements do not consistently describe the effect each finding has on the program.	Statements describe the effect each finding has on the program.
Concern	5	Statements do not describe the potential future effect on the program.	Statements do not consistently describe the potential future effect on the program.	Statements describe the potential future effect of each finding on the program.
TAC only	6	Statements do not include a directed action for each finding.	Statements do not consistently include a directed action for each finding	Statements include a directed action for each finding.
Consistency of Language	7	Most language used in the statements is not consistent with the definition of the findings or level of compliance.	Some language used in the statements is not consistent with the definitions of the findings or level of compliance.	All language used in the statements is consistent with the definitions of the findings or level of compliance.
Consistency with PAF*	8	Most finding statements are inconsistent with the findings indicated on the Program Audit Form.	Some finding statements are inconsistent with the findings indicated on the Program Audit Form.	All finding statements are consistent with the findings indicated on the Program Audit Form.
Program Strength Statement*	9	Strength statements do not indicate what makes the program stand above the norm	Strength statements do not consistently indicate what makes the program stand above the norm	Strength statements indicate what makes the program stand above the norm
	10	Strength statements do not indicate the positive effect on the program.	Strength statements do not consistently indicate the positive effect on the program.	Strength statements indicate the positive effect on the program.
Observation Statement*	11	Most observations are comments or suggestions related to an accreditation action.	Some observations are comments or suggestions relating to accreditation action.	All observations are comments or suggestions not related to an accreditation action.
	12	Most observations are comments or suggestions that do not indicate how it will improve the program.	Some observations are comments or suggestions that do not indicate how it would improve the program.	All observations are comments or suggestions that are intended to assist in the improvement of the program.

*New Team Chair edited Draft Statement will not be evaluated against these items.